

Linda Cholodenko

Dance Teaching Artist
TimeSlips Certified teacher

646.808.5403 lrcholo@gmail.com

Presently:

- Lincoln Center Education (20 years)
Aesthetic Education Grades K-12
Skill-based (Dance, Musical theatre)
Students on the Autism Spectrum (District 75)
- Lincoln Center Moments (Families and loved ones with Dementia)
Live performances followed by workshops for audience members (4 plus years)
- American Ballet Theatre (12 years)
Education outreach residencies K – 8
District 75 Schools
- Learning Springs School (3 years)
Workshops for Students with Autism in ballet
- Once and Again- Movement and Music Workshops
Over 50 crowd. Serving libraries in Queens.
Adults with disabilities
- 80th St. Residence- TimeSlips- Creative engagement through stories

Previous

(Highlights)

- Center For Arts Education (5 years)
Parents as Art Partners, ELA programs
- Disney Theatrical In Schools (3 years)
Musical theatre programs in elementary schools
- New York City Ballet (10 years)
Ballet Bridges, Nutcracker Project
- Ethical Culture School (10 years)
Musical theatre and dance collaboration program
- City Center Young Peoples' Dance Workshops (10 years) School
residencies – various artists
- Richard Hungerford Schools: Theatre workshops for students with Autism. (3 years)
- The Epiphany School: Created dance program, with performances.

And:

Actress/Dancer: Theatre , Tours, International, Film, Commercials
I (AEA, SAG, AFTRA, SDC)

Director/Choreographer : Broadway, Off Broadway, Stock, Regional Theatre

Women's Project Directors Forum. (2 years)

Lifetime Arts Trainee. Theatre, movement for aging adults

TATI Training Marquis Studio- Working with students with Autism, in dance

American Ballet Theatre - Certified Teacher- Pre-primary- Level 5

Brant Lake Dance Camp- Co-Director- Ballet teacher